Tulane Vs. Alabama

Tulane has yet to play a poor game on home soil this season and Green Wave fans should see another excellent contest when the Wave meets the improved Crimson Tide from the University of Alabama, here tonight.

With an impressive win over Navy in the Oyster Bowl and last week's smashing 27-0 victory over Texas Tech, this Tulane team is finding itself and should do well the remainder of the season.

KARL

Competition, however, has been exceedingly strong throughout the entire schedule and it does not let up in the final weeks of this fast-closing grid campaign.

Alabama comes to Tulane tonight with a two-game win streak, its first two-game streak in four years, and boasting a fine defensive corps. And, in the weeks ahead with Vanderbilt and LSU remaining to be played, the Wave has its work cut out.

Tonight's game between Tulane and Alabama is the 29th in a series that began back in 1894. Tulane won its ninth victory in the series last year at Mobile taking a 7-0 decision. Alabama owns 17 wins over the years and two games have ended in ties.

For fans seeing this Tulane team in action for the first time, watch No. 17 quarterback Richie Petitbon, who now leads all SEC backs in total offense with 677 yards. He has passed for 512 and run for 165. But, he is not the whole Tulane show.

Others to keep your eye on are No. 33 Percy Colon who leads Wave runners with a 5.5 per carry average and has scored four times; Claude (Boo) Mason No. 20 the excellent runner and receiver at right half; Eddie Dunn No. 43 and Tom McClellan No. 47, if he is healed, perform admirably at fullback.

Then up front in the line you'll see good football from Billy Clements No. 60, Spiro Cosse No. 52, Dan Egan No. 76, Neal Jones No. 50, Joe LeSage No. 74 and don't forget to keep your eyes on a quartette of ends—No. 89 Billy Brabham, No. 86 Leo Young, No. 81 Pete Abadie and No. 82 Pat McLean can all play this game of football.

Next week the Wave goes to Nashville for its final road game—a battle with Vanderbilt. Tulane will return here for the Big One, Nov. 22, an afternoon game with L.S.U. If you haven't bought tickets for that one you had better hurry or you may be standing outside.

Do you really think it looks OK?" and Bill has to say "yes" (not only because Sue went along with Joe, but because MB just won't let you buy a suit unless it fits — and looks — well. 1958 Green Wave Co-Captains

Halfback Claude "Boo" Mason 5-10, 175-pounds from Lake Charles, La. A two-year letterman was best back on the '57 eleven. An excellent runner and receiver he also excels at pass defense. Boo gained 470 yards in '57 to rank as second among the Greenies. Scored 18 points on three TDs last year.

Left Guard James "Jimmy" Blount 5-10, 190-pound senior from Groves, Texas. Also a two-year letterman, Jimmy's hustle in defensive pursuit last year made him one of the Wave's top linemen. Small but rugged he has skill and determination that keeps him going against larger opponents.

The second section of today's CAM-PIX is devoted to the Community Hospitality Committee, a group of New Orleans families which provide "homes away from home" to 200 foreign students at Tulane. The families take the students into their homes for Thanksgiving dinners, Christmas parties, Mardi Gras activities, and other events throughout the year. Here a group of foreign students have fun at a swimming party at the home of Mrs. Charles Keller, chairman and founder of the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Camilo Apess of Mexico pose on the pool's edge with their children, Alia and Alexandro, above. Below, Wilton T. McKay, Jr., (left) president of the Tulane student council chats with Ginette Ayral and Fedon Dimitriaves of Egypt.

Tulane Stadium, lighted last year at a cost of $168,000, is famous as the home of Green Wave football teams and of the annual Sugar Bowl Classic, was dedicated 32 years ago this fall with east and west stands seating 35,000. Subsequent enlargements, due in large measure to the efforts of the Sugar Bowlers, have increased the capacity to its present 80,985. ALMA MATER

We praise thee for thy past, O Alma Mater!
Thy hand hath done its work full faithfully;
The incense of thy spirit hath ascended
And filled America from sea to sea!

We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
Today thy children look to thee for bread!
Thou ledest them to dreams and action splendid!

The hunger of their souls is richly fed!

We praise thee for thy present, Alma Mater!
The vista of its glory gleameth far!
We shall ever be part of thee, great Mother!
There thou will be where e'er thy children are!

Chorus

Olive Green and Blue, we love thee.
Pledge we now our fealty true
Where the trees are ever greenest,
Where the skies are purest blue.
Hear us now, O Tulane, hear us.
As we proudly sing to thee!
Take from us our heart's devotion!
Thine we are, and thine shall be!

ROLL ON, TULANE

Here's a song for the Olive and the Blue.
Here's a cheer for the team that's tried and true.
Here's a pledge of loyalty to thee.
Oh, Tulane Varsity.
Here's to the Greenbacks that never will say die,
And here's to the hearts that are true
To the men of Tulane who are fighting for her name,
For the Olive and the Blue.

Chorus

Roll, Green Wave,
Roll them down the field.
Hold, Green Wave,
That line must never yield.
When those Greenbacks charge through the line
They're bound for victory.
Hail, Green Wave,
For you we give a cheer.
Hail, Green Wave,
